'Wrong belief' blogging ex-monk quits centre

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE manager of a new centre has resigned amid controversy surrounding 'extremist' posts on his blog.

Yusuf Bonner, 47, was criticised for writings on his personal site - one of which likens meeting people of other religions to being 'trapped in a suicide vest of wrong belief' - and on Friday the centre confirmed he had left his post.

Mr Bonner, who used to be a Catholic monk, was named on invitations to the opening of Discover Islam Luton (DIL), in Upper George Street, Luton, as the 'centre manager'.

DIL is a community project which aims to provide a neutral environment for people to ask questions about Islam or Muslims that they would feel too embarrassed or intimidated to talk about otherwise.

Mr Bonner's mobile phone has been switched off since the launch and he has not answered Luton on Sunday's emails.

He was also not present at the opening event on Tuesday as the English Defence League (EDL) staged a small demonstration outside the centre where they handed out leaflets stating it promoted

PROTEST:
Members of the English Defence
League outside the new Discover Islam centre

'Luton In Harm-enemy'. A statement from DIL's board of trustees said: 'Discover Islam Luton is aware of the recent press coverage regarding Mr Bonner's blog comments.'

'These entries were his own personal views made quite a while ago and as soon as they were raised to our attention we initiated an internal investigation.'

'These views in no way reflect the opinions of Discover Islam Luton. Since then, Discover Islam Luton would like to state that Mr Bonner has resigned from his position as centre manager stating personal reasons.'

'We would like to re-iterate that Discover Islam Luton is an independent charity which exists to improve community relations by providing the public with a local, convenient place to have their concerns and questions about Islam answered.'

'Only by communicating and engaging can we build a better Luton and we encourage Luton's public to visit the centre so we can work together for a more peaceful, harmonious town.'

On Tuesday, EDL leader Tommy Robinson said: 'We're here to let the residents of Luton know what this centre is really about.'

'We don't need this form of Islam in our town and it is unbelievable that they are doing it under a banner of peace. We will be stepping up a campaign over the next three months, and we will close this place down.'

RETURNED TO TOWN:
Travellers at Stockwood Park

Caravans pitch up again at park

TRAVELLERS have again returned to Stockwood Park, just six months after they were last evicted from the site.

It is believed that the group of around 20 caravans gained access to the ground late on Wednesday evening.

The council is aware that the caravans are on the land and are currently in the eviction process. Travellers were ejected from the same site last October after being allowed to stay for a funeral.

Tory top dog attends dinner to talk welfare

A LEADING Tory MP visited the area to give a speech about welfare reform.

Iain Duncan Smith, the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, came to speak at the annual dinner of South West Bedfordshire Conservatives at the Dunstable Downs Golf Club.

South West Bedfordshire MP Andrew Selous works for Iain Duncan Smith as his Parliamentary Private Secretary.

Mr Duncan Smith outlined the Government's Welfare Reform policies - which earlier this month passed its final hurdle in the House of Lords - in his speech.

Taxi drivers' cash stolen in gunpoint robberies

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO taxi drivers have been threatened with guns in separate robberies within three days.

On the first occasion, a driver took two men from Pottery Close to Brussels Close, Luton, at 1.40am last Sunday.

On arrival, the men demanded money and pressed what was believed to be a black gun against the driver's neck.

The second incident took place at 7.40pm on Tuesday, after a different driver picked up three men and took them from Gordon Street to Westerdale.

When they arrived, one of the men said he was going inside a property to get some money.

Seconds later the man sat in the front passenger seat pointed what appeared to be a gun at the driver and demanded cash, before stealing around £20 in loose change.

The robbers involved in the Brussels Close incident are both described as white and aged around 30.

The man holding the weapon is around 6ft tall and described as muscular while the second man is around 5ft 5 with a skinny build.

Of the men that were involved in the robbery at Westerdale, two were described as black and in their late teens or early 20s, with all three wearing dark clothing.

A Bedfordshire Police spokesman said: "In the past week two taxi drivers have been the victims of extremely traumatic experiences while going about their daily business.

"Thankfully, neither driver has been harmed during the robberies but both have been left very upset by what has taken place.

"While these are two separate incidents that are not linked, Bedfordshire Police will not tolerate any sort of gun crime in our towns and we must do all that we can to find the individuals responsible as quickly as possible and stop them from committing any further offences."

If you have information relating to the Brussels Way robbery, contact DC Richard Cunningham on 01582 473239, whilst anyone with details about the Westerdale incident should contact DC Louise Howard on 01582 473352.

Alternatively call the non emergency number 101, text information to 07786200011 or contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Fire engines' Recreation visit was for the fighters' 'training'

playing football on one of the centre's outdoor pitches as part of their physical training.

A spokesman for Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service said: "Firefighters undertake regular physical training activity whilst on duty, mostly on the fire station premises.

"It is an important aspect of their work to remain fit to do a physical job. On the occasion in question, it appears that fire crews from Luton were undertaking their physical training off site.

"This doesn't restrict their ability to respond to emergency incidents.

"They remain in contact with fire control at all times, and can be mobilised to respond to 999 calls, without having to return to the station."

Travellers return to 'beautiful' park

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A GROUP of around 20 caravans belonging to travellers have again managed to gain access to Stockwood Park.

Despite Luton Borough Council saying it had taken 'preventative measures' to prohibit access to the site, it appears that the same gate has been used to get on to the land in Farley Hill.

A resident, who does not wish to be named, has said that she is frustrated that travellers have found their way back on to the ground.

She said: "It is a complete nightmare.

"My son saw the caravans getting back onto the land on Wednesday night at around 11pm.

"I have lived here for 18 years and it used to be a beautiful park, but it has been destroyed.

"I can't see that the council did anything last time to prevent the travellers returning, as far as I can see they've come in through the same gate that they did six months ago as it is now wide open.

"Yet again, I'm sure it'll be the taxpayers that will foot the bill for the clean up.

"The council really need to be held to account for this."

A council spokesperson said: "There are preventative measures in the park to prevent access.

"We have tried different measures including erecting bollards and welding the gates closed, however, it is a fine line we have to tread between preventing encampments while at the same time ensuring law abiding citizens can access the public park. We are following our standard legal procedure for eviction, however it is too early to predict the costs at this stage."

This latest encampment comes just six months after a group of 25 travellers caravans, some of whom were alleged to have come from Dale Farm, in Essex, were last evicted from Stockwood Park.

Just last week, Luton on Sunday reported that neighbouring Central Bedfordshire Council is preparing a document that will detail proposals to accommodate the expected growth of traveller families in the area until 2031.

As part of this work the authority is inviting residents and landowners to submit details of sites they would like to see developed for this purpose.

Council workers cash-in

A POLL on the council's internal website has shown - so far - that 73 per cent of staff come to work for 'the money'.

The survey, which all staff at Luton Borough Council can answer, asks staff "Which closely matches your reasons for coming to work?" and only 20 per cent, by Friday, said it was to 'help serve the people of Luton'.

A spokeswoman said: "Findings from the most recent full staff survey, published in February 2011, indicated our employees' general motivation and job satisfaction remained encouragingly high in view of the ongoing economic pressures."

Firm ceases trading after 18 years

A FLOORING company says it has had to cease trading as a result of the recession, a flood and fire in its premises and a debtor defaulting on a large payment.

Bennetts Flooring, which opened in Luton 18 years ago and sells carpets and other types of flooring, has closed all of its three stores including one in Marsh Road, which has a sign in the window saying it is shut 'this week'.

Until Friday the company's website was still running as normal when a message appeared stating that it was unable to undertake new sales enquiries due to 'unforeseen circumstances'. The firm is also still listed as an active company on Companies House.

In a statement directors Robert Bennett and Charlie Mil-Homens said: 'After enduring a very tough period of trading through the on-going recession, a subsequent flood and fire in our premises and finally a debtor defaulting on a large payment, Bennetts has had no choice but to cease trading.

'We are working alongside our various partners in business to ultimately decide Bennetts' fate.' It pledged to honour as many outstanding orders as possible across all their stores and anyone who hasn't yet been contacted can do so by emailing sales@bennettsflooring.co.uk

The other stores are in Amptill and St Albans.

Police 'plates' swoop

DRIVERS using illegal registration plates are being targeted by three police forces in the region.

Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Cambridgeshire police have teamed up for a crackdown on misrepresented number plates displayed on vehicles using the counties' roads.

Operation Dragon is running throughout this month, and anyone caught displaying a number plate that does not meet the DVLA's criteria will be pulled over by police and could face a fine of up to £1,000.

No city reward but Love Luton thrives

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE Love Luton campaign will be continuing despite the town missing out on city status.

It was announced on Wednesday that St Asaph, Chelmsford and Perth had been awarded the honour ahead of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Armagh in Northern Ireland was also granted Lord Mayor status.

This was Luton's third attempt to become a city, with this bid being financed by more than £150,000 from private sector business sponsors, and £50,000 from a Government rebate received by the council.

Despite the disappointment of missing out on the honour, many have spoken out publicly on the strength of Luton's bid, and have vowed that their work to achieve growing positive recognition for the town will continue.

Cllr Hazel Simmons (pictured), leader of the council, said: "The Love Luton campaign has shown without a doubt how strongly the people of Luton care about the future success and reputation of their town.

"We still consider ours was the standout bid, and to say thank you to everyone is not enough on its own.

"So now, with their continued support, we will continue to stand up for Luton on the national and international stage with our heads held high."

Colin Chick, Corporate Director for Environment and Regeneration, said: "I'm disappointed that we didn't win city status and can't find a reason why the other locations were picked above us.

"I would happily sit down with the winners of city status to compare the bids that were made, as I still believe ours was as strong if not stronger than any of the others.

"The private sector sponsors have agreed to continue funding Love Luton for at least another year, so our focus has now got to be on ensuring that the campaign and positive coverage of our town continues.

"We've got the Love Luton festival coming up this summer and there will be other events held over the coming year to help do that.

"Although Luton has bid for city status before, this time the crucial difference is that the whole community has joined together to create a lasting legacy."

Trevor Holden, the council's chief executive, said: "In no sense has Luton 'lost'.

"We decided to bid for city status to provide a focus for the community to get behind and support the town, and to secure media coverage to put forward the positive aspects of Luton and improve its image.

"We could not have been more successful in achieving this aim."

Kelvin Hopkins MP said: "It is obviously disappointing that we have not been granted city status on this occasion but we have had a brilliant and heart-warming campaign.

"I congratulate the council and all those who organised and led the campaign and I say we should carry on telling the good news stories about our great town."

Cllr Roy Davis said: "The prize of city status still eludes us but it was only a milestone towards the overall target of promoting a positive image of Luton to people outside the town, and creating a sense of belief among our communities."

Mark Broadhead, general manager of The Mall, said: "I have only been involved in the city status bid campaign for the last few months, but would like to say how impressed and proud I am of the efforts of all those involved in putting together an outstanding bid.

"I hope that the people of Luton will continue to get behind the Love Luton 2012 campaign with their full support, uniting Luton for a vibrant future."

Second 'option' for airport expansion

GOOD NEIGHBOUR: Managing Director of Luton Airport Glyn Jones

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

RIVAL plans for the expansion of Luton Airport have been submitted by its operator.

Speaking at the announcement on Wednesday, managing director Glyn Jones, said London Luton Airport Operations Limited (LLAOL) wants to increase capacity to 15 million passengers – which would bring in 4,000 jobs. Among its ideas is one to improve road access.

The council's plan aims to raise passenger numbers to 18 million which would increase its revenue as owner of the site even more.

LLAOL runs the airport on behalf of council owners London Luton Airport Limited (LLAL), and has warned that if LLAL chooses to end its concession, which it has held since 1998, then Luton Borough Council could face a multi-million pound lawsuit.

He said: "As far as we are concerned we are making it better and bigger, and being the best neighbour we can be."

"We want to work with the council. I talk to the council every day; there is not a difficult relationship."

He added that a planning application could be submitted next month and if it got the go-ahead work could begin in 2013 and be completed by 2015.

In response to LLAOL's plans, Steve Heappey, lead officer at LLAL, said: "We will be reviewing the proposals from the existing operator, which have now been announced."

"Our consultation launched last month and is open until March 26 and we seek and welcome comments, questions and feedback on our proposal to grow London Luton Airport and the benefits that this will bring to Luton and the region."

LLAOL's masterplan of the proposed development can be viewed at www.london-luton.co.uk/Masterplan/

Respite carers wanted by council

A COUNCIL is highlighting the role of short break carers during Share the Care week.

The aim of the scheme, which starts tomorrow, is to raise the profile of short breaks and encourage people to come forward and consider becoming a carer or working with disabled children and young people.

Short breaks enable disabled children and young people to do many of the activities many children take for granted and are one of the services most commonly requested by parents of disabled children.

Cllr Mark Versallion said: "By giving consistent and personalised short-term care to the child or young person they are also giving valuable support and respite for the whole family."

£100k ranger will 'benefit' the town

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NEW Town Ranger role is expected to be created at Dunstable Town Council – at a cost of around £100,000.

The proposals will be discussed at a meeting tomorrow, and if it gets the go ahead, the employee is expected to be in the job by the summer.

A report which details the proposals states that the town council's 2012/13 budget includes a revenue sum of £21,908 to employ an additional member of staff as a Town Ranger and a Vehicles and Equipment reserve sum of £86,498 to purchase additional grounds and cleansing equipment for the scheme.

Details for the equipment needed include a Ford transit van fitted with pressure washing system and GPS tracker at a cost of between £38,000-£42,000, and a towable hydraulic platform for working at height, at around £15,000.

The new employee will be expected to carry out tasks around the town, which will include cleaning graffiti, pavement washing, leaf clearance and removing plastic bags that have been caught up in trees.

When asked, Town Clerk, David

Ashlee, disagreed that this was a lot of money for the council to be spending on one position.

He said: "If the proposals go ahead, this will be a high visibility scheme that will benefit the town.

"The equipment when bought will belong to the town council and will be shared with current ground and maintenance staff.

"When they first start in the role they will be handed a whole list of jobs that they will be expected to complete and then they will be working, on a proactive basis, solving problems as they occur.

"At present there are no plans to recruit additional Town Rangers as there is no budget."

Better care in the right place

Healthier Together is a review of local health services across Bedfordshire, Luton, Milton Keynes and Northamptonshire. ## Show your colours

SIR - Stopsley's Liberal Democrat councillors marked 40 years of their 'Focus' newsletter with more of the usual: boring grumbles about council tax, moans about roadworks and opposing absolutely everything the Labour council does.

Fascinating stuff! But surely what people really want to know is whether they are for or against the Alliance government's NHS proposals.

In a vote at the Lib Dem spring conference last Sunday, Deputy Prime Minister Nick Clegg was defeated 314 to 270 which means that the Lib Dem party now does not endorse the Health and Social Care Bill.

Luton's Lib Dem councillors may be embarrassed by being associated with such a disastrous fiasco strongly opposed by almost all NHS professional bodies and many of their own and Conservative MPs and peers, but they still have a duty to let us know where they stand.

Mullion Close, Luton

Is any green space safe?

SIR - Labour-led Luton Borough Council have taken John Prescott's words to heart, concrete anything that's a green space in Luton.

Their aim is to build on any green sites they can find, ignoring brown field sites all over Luton, which could produce just under 10,000 homes.

According to Wates building company representative they have looked at brown field sites, they could not afford to develop them.

The first phase of attacking Luton's few green spaces was Hart Hill, Wigmore Lane and Falconers Road where 152 new homes are being built. In this case the views of the local people were ignored.

One of the second phases is Ickley Close a development between Butely Road and the M1. This site was donated to the people of the estate as an amenity area by Wimpeys. The council only hold it as trustees.

The land is used by local people to walk the dogs, jogging, football and cricket. Most of this is being taken away. The youth of the area are always complaining of no area to play and Labour take no notice of their complaints.

Their proposal is to build 50 houses on more than 50 per cent of this land.

A consultation of what it is going to be like was held at Hockwell

Private matters should stay just that

SIR - Well done for headlining the teacher's affair harassment campaign on the front page, March 11 publication.

It is good to know that Luton has no more important matters to be highlighted, positive or negative.

It is good to know that the gentlemen concerned is going to have problems and repercussions at his place of work and make working life very difficult for him.

It is also good to know that his wife has to re-live this with all of Luton and more knowing about it.

As is good to know that his children (if any) will have full knowledge of this matter. Well done for making an emotional situation much, much worse.

I am sure that there are many work place affairs happening all over the country and the only people who should discuss it are those involved themselves.

You have turned your paper into a little tattle gossip mag which appears to dislike Ashcroft High School immensely with all the bad press they publish about them.

May I remind you that the intention of Ashcroft High School is to care and educate its pupils.

May I also remind you that a marriage is between two people and in this instance a third became involved.

That is bad enough without the rest of Bedfordshire having their opinion. Luton on Sunday leave them and the school alone and get back to reporting important issues.

Adele Gallagher
Rowington Close, Luton

Alison Goodchild

Community Centre Mayne Avenue, Luton a notice of which was only given out two days at the most before it was held, was full of artist impressions.

The consultation area was very small and Cllr Mike Garrett who lives in Butely Road had no notification and knew nothing about the proposed development, and would still have been in the dark if a friend had not phoned over the weekend.

The consultation started at 4.30pm and by 5pm over 40 angry people were protesting. I must say that a Wates Building Company representative said one person did support the development but only stayed two minutes.

The other proposed areas for development are Bradley Road amenity area where the allotments are, and Roebuck Close are also being steam rolled through the system with the consultation just a sham.

Luton is one of three urban areas in England with the least amount of green spaces, yet with brown field sites in abundance Luton Labour run Council steam roll through our green spaces.

Are any of our parks safe? Do the nine labour councillors in these wards condone green space destruction and what of the two Labour MPs Kelvin Hopkins and Gavin Shuker?

John Young
Chairman, Luton Conservative Association

It is time for a rethink

SIR - When the budget is announced next on Wednesday, we will all be asked to make sacrifices in order to deal with our economic problems.

At the same time many multinational companies continue to avoid billions in taxes every year.

In spite of tough talk on cracking down on tax dodging the government is planning on opening a new tax loophole, which will make it easier for multinationals to avoid paying their bills around the world.

ActionAid estimates that developing countries could lose £4 billion, money urgently needed to fight poverty, while the Treasury's own figures show the UK will lose £1 billion a year.

When companies dodge taxes it is ordinary people in the UK, and around the world, who pick up the bill.

When these changes are debated in parliament, I'm calling on our MPs to make sure the government urgently rethinks its plans.

David Kiddle
Dunstable

Scrap the fuel increase

SIR - Drivers are taxed five times over for the services we get.

Despite practically record fuel prices, this summer, the UK government plans to add around another 4p/litre worth of pain at the pump.

Successive increases don't just hurt drivers and our hard-pressed hauliers, they feed through to rising prices at the shops for everyone.

Yet the government is already dropping hints that it has 'helped drivers enough' and cannot hold back. With last year's 1p/litre cut outweighed by far larger rises, and most of the price consumed in tax, it's more a case of the government helping itself?

With families everywhere feeling the pinch, the Chancellor must use his budget to scrap the planned rise.

Several MPs are already speaking out and saying enough is enough. We can all lobby ours, at the House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA.

CONCERNED: Brenda Young with the letter that states the 33p charge for a warden

Resident calling for wardens to be seen

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FRUSTRATED resident has spoken out about paying 33p per week to Luton Borough Council for a neighbourhood warden - stating that she has never seen one.

Brenda Young, of Hanswick Close, Luton, first discovered the charge when she received a letter from the authority last week, which detailed the updated cost of the rent for her council property.

Part of the breakdown included a 33p weekly charge for a neighbourhood warden.

Mrs Young said: "I'm not concerned about the amount of money, which to be honest is minimal."

"My issue is that I am paying for a neighbourhood warden that I have never seen."

"To be honest, we could probably do with someone being around in the area."

"There have been a number of occasions where I've had property stolen from my garden."

"Perhaps the presence of a warden might have prevented the incidents."

"I wonder how many other people are paying for something that they don't know about, and aren't seeing any benefit from."

A council spokesman said: "The Neighbourhood Warden charge is equivalent to the cost of four Neighbourhood Officers, but there are seven in total."

"Their role is to monitor areas with higher levels of anti-social behaviour and visit any victims crime across all Luton Borough Council properties."

"All council properties are charged a flat fee of 33p."

"For 2012/13 the estimated total income for the charge is £139k, which is used to pay for the 4 Neighbourhood Wardens and their vehicles."

"The charge has been in place since 2006/2007."

Council's saving energy

UP TO £140,000 has been saved by a council as it cuts emissions.

Central Bedfordshire Council has cut 1,000 tonnes of CO2 emissions since 2009 in council buildings - the same weight as approximately 170 elephants.

Councillor Ken Matthews said: "This is great news for council taxpayers, especially in the face of rising energy prices."

"It's also good for our environment and especially topical during the week when water companies announced we are now officially in a drought."

For advice on how you can save energy and reduce your carbon footprint, visit: www.energysavingtrust.org.uk

Homes damaged after arsonist sets light to tyres and pushchairs

FOUR flats were damaged by smoke following an arson attack.

Police say a pile of tyres and pushchairs that were in a stairwell in The Ridings, Luton, were set alight at around 1am on Tuesday.

The blaze caused considerable damage to the walls, stairs and ceilings, while the smoke filled four flats.

Several residents of the flats who suffered from smoke inhalation were taken to Luton & Dunstable Hospital for treatment but nobody was seriously injured.

Detective Constable Claire Long, who is investigating the attack, is keen to hear from anyone who was in The Ridings area at the time of the attack and may have seen anything suspicious.

She said: "Thankfully no one has been seriously harmed as a result of this arson attack but there has been a lot of damage to the property."

"We need to catch the person or persons who committed this offence as soon as possible and stop any further serious incidents from occurring."

"I would really like to hear from anyone who was in the area at the time of either offence, or from anyone else who may have information however small or insignificant they think it is - that could help us."

"Don't dismiss your information as unimportant - even tiny details which don't seem relevant now might become useful later on in the investigation."

If you have information relating to this incident, contact DC Long, in confidence, on 01582 473286, the non-emergency number 101.

Doctor scoops award for his training scheme

A GP has been given a prestigious national award for his training of fellow doctors.

Dr Rafid Aziz, based at Medici Medical Centre in Windsor Street, Luton, was given a Quality Improvement Award by Care UK for outstanding commitment to quality of service for developing his training scheme.

Dr Aziz works at the Luton and Bedfordshire Out-of-Hours service and supervises all newly qualified doctors.

He said: "Putting the training process in place required a great deal of planning, however the consistently positive feedback and popularity of the scheme proves all the work was worth it."

"Instructing the trainees can be challenging at times, however it is undeniably a very rewarding process. The training system plays an extremely important role in ensuring that all patients receive the best possible care and that our high treatment standards here are maintained."

Steve Hinch, manager of the service, said: "Rafid deserves all the credit for the success of the training programme and the consistently high achievement of our young GPs."

THERE is despair in some artistic quarters over a Picasso painting.

His 'Child with a dove' is to be sold by the aristocratic Aberconway family from Wales and is said to be worth £50million.

Unfortunately the National Gallery has just spent all its money on a Titian masterpiece, so the picture may be sold abroad. Unless of course the Culture Secretary places an export bar on the painting.

The Picasso is described by one art critic as 'depicting a small girl holding a dove'.

They know how to paint pictures with words.

It is from his early life, marking the beginning of his blue period when the ears still appeared at the side of the head.

Anyway, I have a brilliant idea for the National and all other galleries. Instead of buying the real thing, for 50 million quid, why don't they just buy a copy and hang that?

So long as they are honest and say it is a copy, what exactly is the problem?

I have seen Michelangelo's David in Florence and only discovered later it was a copy because people kept lopping the private bits off the original statue.

We have two Picassos on our walls at home, as well as Edward Hopper's Nighthawks, a Vermeer and a Juan Miro.

They are all copies, of course, so burglars stand down.

I may not know much about art - but I like an idea I've had

We have a few originals, including a Trevor Thomas which is based on a Titian masterpiece, a Steve Bowers and a nice little watercolour by the present Mrs Lowe, the combined value of which would not buy a breakfast at the Savoy.

The more I think of it, the more it is a stroke of genius, no pun intended. Lots more galleries could open up, as there could be several copies of each work. Entrepreneurs only need to pop to Athena, buy a few prints and a new gallery is open.

No more long queues at the Uffizi, or crowds in the Mona Lisa room at the Louvre.

Of course it might mean the originals start to fall in price but unless your pension has invested in fine works of art, this will be generally a good thing, as they are very much over-priced at the moment.

They could also be on the internet, so people could start their own collection.

Books and records can now be downloaded, often for free, so it only makes sense for works of art to move with the times.

The works for the latest David Hockney exhibition were created from an iPod, so, in the traditional sense, there are no originals.

Galleries could be made much more interactive with virtual canvases for people to have a go at recreating said brush strokes, styles and colour.

In short, galleries could be made much more fun and touchy feely.

I remember said Mrs Lowe telling me she tried to point out the hare on WM Turner's Rain, Steam and Speed at the National.

The friend she was with could not see it so she hopped over the rope just to point her finger at the said spot to be hauled off by two burly security guards - she did quite enjoy that bit.

I was once reprimanded for attempting to take a photograph.

Art galleries are often about as much fun as a cross between a doctor's waiting room and a trip to IKEA.

Wouldn't it be more fun to be able to get up close and personal and use modern technology to really get under the skin of these great works.

Billionaire recluses can put the originals in vaults and cellars, or line their yachts with them.

And we can play with the copies and enjoy the art rather than merely get pleasure from owning it.

Students' exclusive with bar brawl MP

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE start of a curfew for disgraced MP Eric Joyce was delayed so that journalism students could bag the first full interview.

His lawyers succeeded in requesting his restrictions start on the Saturday following his court appearance so he could speak to University of Bedfordshire students immediately after.

A student camera crew and reporter staked out the City of Westminster Magistrates' Court where Joyce appeared earlier this month to plead guilty to four charges of assault in a House of Commons bar.

Shortly after he emerged from

Eric Joyce at the University of Bedfordshire

court, the students managed to bundle the Falkirk MP into lecturer Paul Rowinski's car and drive him straight to the university campus in Luton.

Mr Rowinski said: "I could not have asked more of them. They prioritised what needed to be filmed and how and then made very sure that we got the scoop, directing Eric Joyce to my car. It was exemplary and I am very proud of how they handled themselves."

In a televised interview with third year student Sam Holden, Joyce described his evening of violence in the Commons which ended in him assaulting two MPs and two councillors - as a spectacular 'oops' and admitted he had problems with both alcohol and anger.

The students tweeted the interview, reported it for radio and pulled together the television interview. They also produced a four-page newspaper special on the event called The Ebdonite.

They gave the interview to the Press Association, which ran it complete with student bylines, and posted it on YouTube.

Bogus football faker stole woman's handbag

AN ELDERLY woman's handbag was stolen by a distraction burglar.

The woman answered a knock at her front door in London Road, Luton, at 7pm on Saturday and was told the man's child had accidentally kicked a football into the garden.

He asked if she could throw it back over but as she went to look for the ball, she became suspicious and went back to the front door where he said not to worry he would collect it the next day, and left. She then noticed her handbag was missing.

Det Con Sophie McGrath reminded people to be cautious and use a spy hole and door chain and insist on ID when answering the door.

The offender is described as being white, in his early 20s, around 5ft 8in tall and of slim build. He had short dark, brown hair, was clean shaven and was wearing a grey sweatshirt.

If you have information relating to this incident call 101.

Nineteen hours in life

ALMOST a year since the regionalisation of Bedfordshire's court system, Andrew Brumhill - who works for First Law which has a branch in Luton - explains the effect it has had on criminal cases, and outlines a day's work for a defence lawyer

5.30am - Meeting with fellow directors, Simon Campbell and Derek Johashen. This is the only time that all three of us are in the office due to court commitments.

A number of items are on the agenda including the restriction on legal aid entitlement and the government restructuring of fees that mean a large percentage of work carried out is without payment.

7.30am - Team meeting in the office in order to distribute the cases in court today between the solicitors based at the office. Since the restructuring of the court listing, it means that on Tuesdays all cases, previously spread out through a week, are now condensed into one day making it very busy. Today is no exception with the list showing some 40 cases in court between four lawyers.

9am - Arrival at Bedford Magistrates' Court - it could just as easily be Luton - The court expect progress to be made in the majority of cases and therefore the hour between arriving at court and the session beginning is taken up with an assessment of the papers and getting instructions from defendants.

9.30am - Defendants arrive and the pressure is on to speak to all of them, go through all paperwork obtained from the Crown Prosecution Service half-an-hour earlier and ensure that the cases are ready to proceed by 10am. Often defendants have difficulty in reading and writing.

10am - 1pm - In the morning session, nine cases are dealt with number of allegations of assault. A combination of not guilty/ guilty pleas are entered with the cases being adjourned for trial.

The court insist that the issue that will be the centre of the trial is communicated. This means that defendants that were not represented at the police station be advised on the appropriate plea and then address the issue that will be addressed at the trial.

Only a few minutes consultation with a solicitor is allowed in order to go through the witness statements. The suggestion that cases are simply adjourned is far from the truth.

6pm - All cases have been dealt with and a quick calculation between myself and my three colleagues indicates that some 45 cases have been dealt with.

Out of those 45, some 25 have been concluded often within a few days of a defendant's arrest and charge.

The working day is not concluded as the custody sergeant from a Police Station calls as we are leaving court to advise about three defendants arrested for a serious conspiracy to rob.

The indication is that the interview process will be lengthy and may commence later on that evening. An 19 hour day is not unusual for a busy criminal defence solicitor.

by way of sentences ranging from a financial penalty for a straight forward theft of meat to a term of immediate imprisonment for a repeat offender.

1.15pm - There is no such thing as a long or leisurely lunch as the afternoon court will begin at 2pm prompt. The process of the evidence and witness statements being available for the defence solicitors to take instructions is repeated again with a further batch of new cases listed at 2pm with an equally busy afternoon for all of us.

2pm - A further mix of routine shoplifting cases this time with a

Stay up for top role with the police force

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

FORMER deputy council leader Richard Stay has put himself forward for the role of police crime commissioner in Bedfordshire.

Central Bedfordshire Councillor Stay (pictured) announced this week that he would be standing for the elections in November.

He said: "As someone who has spent 16 years in public service in elected office, I have some insight into the issues facing policing in Bedfordshire."

"This is a role that requires the commissioner to represent people, which I have been doing in Bedfordshire for a long time."

The introduction of police crime commissioners has received criticism nationally for bringing politics into policing and for costing almost £140 million when police forces are facing cuts of up to 20 per cent, while others claim it will create better transparency and focus. They'll replace police authorities including the one in Bedfordshire as the policing watchdog.

Biggleswade-based conservative management consultant Bernard Rix has also confirmed he will be running in the election for the role which would see a commissioner being elected every four years to hold the police force to account.

Mr Rix said: "I am putting myself forward as someone who is independent of policing but who understands about how to contribute to it."

"The police crime commissioner needs to work across all communities in Bedfordshire and also understand the way it works."

LIVE lessons are being offered free to the town's residents as part of an online school.

The Centre for Professional and Academic Development (CentrePAD) has joined forces with Luton Borough Council to deliver lessons via interactive classrooms.

On behalf of the people of Luton, Mayor

Free lessons from online school

Cllr Don Worlthing, with MPs Kelvin Hopkins and Gavin Shuker, accepted a Certificate of Education during a gifting ceremony at the Town Hall, giving each resident a membership where they can access more than 100 hours of lessons per week for a year, free of charge, as long as you register before April 16.

Zala and Ali Zia, of Luton, created CentrePAD. At the ceremony Zala said: "The aim of CentrePAD is to provide the community with another avenue through which to achieve their aspirations by removing the barriers to learning time, distance and cost." For more information visit: www.centrepad.org.uk/luton

Do you care?

Every child who comes into foster care is different.

There is no 'typical' child we place. Many have faced extreme difficulties. Some are from minority ethnic populations. Some have a range of special needs or display challenging behaviour. Some are in sibling groups which need to stay together wherever possible. All are looking for safe, caring homes with people like you.

From drivers to café workers to engineers, we help all sorts of people become foster carers, supporting them to transform the lives of the most vulnerable and neglected children and young people.

Fostering myths busted!

With over a quarter of people considering fostering, but almost 60 per cent mistakenly thinking they're not eligible, we want to bust the myths and tackle the many reasons people don't come forward:

- I don't think I'm the right age
- I'm male
- I'm gay
- I don't own my own home
- I don't have any children
- I'm single
- I haven't worked with children or young people
- I don't think they recruit carers from my ethnicity
- I can't afford to give up work
- 24-hour support

Why choose Action for Children?

We value our foster carers very highly. Our friendly team will support you, so you can support young people to grow with hope and confidence. We are an experienced UK children's charity who put children at the centre of everything we do. We offer:

- 24-hour support
- continuous training and development
- careful matching
- regular paid breaks when you need them
- competitive allowances and fees
- support groups and social events

Children and young people in your area need foster homes

Could you give children and young people the care and support they need to thrive? If you can offer a safe and caring home, we'll give you excellent training, competitive fees (up to £420 per week), regular planned breaks and 24-hour support. We want to hear from you!

Your bin – move it or lose it

Luton Borough Council is reminding residents of the importance of promptly removing your refuse bin from the pavement after it has been emptied.

Bins that are left out permanently cause inconvenience to neighbours and pedestrians, particularly for people with disabilities and parents using pushchairs.

The Council requires that all bins are removed from the pavement within 12 hours of a collection.

If your bins are left out continuously, then they could be taken away and alternative arrangements made for waste collection from your address. Enforcement action may also be taken.

For more information about waste collection in Luton, or to check your collection day, call 01582 510333 or go to www.luton.gov.uk/recycling

It's hard to spend your money in this paradise

TRAVEL

AS I arrived at Sheikh Shah Jalal International Airport in Dhaka, the memories of my last visit to Bangladesh when I was 13 came flooding back to me – the searing heat, mosquito bites, enormous rice fields and, of course, the chaotic traffic.

On this occasion though, I returned to embark on the longest road trip in my life.

From my hometown Sylhet I went to Jaflong, headed south to the capital Dhaka by coach, then even further south to the commercial port city of Chittagong ending up at Cox's Bazaar, Bangladesh's famous beach.

A country slightly bigger than England, Bangladesh has a population of 150 million, ranking it the seventh most populated in the world.

Living is very cheap – £1 is around 130 Taka and three quarters of the country survives on less than 30p a day, so there was no excuse for me to run out of cash!

About 95 per cent of the Bangladeshis who live in Britain originally come from Sylhet, a rich agricultural city in the east.

My family are from the village of Farhid Pur, Lala Bazaar, an affluent district with a thriving local bazaar seven miles from the centre of Sylhet. Rice and fish is the national dish so I visited my local fish market to see what all the fuss was about.

Lala bazaar had more fish than an aquarium – catfish, squid, lobsters, crab and shark! And to get an appetite in the first place there are plenty of shops and boutiques in Zindabazaar to keep the ladies busy.

Green Line was recommended to us and they were spot on. Comfy, spacious, air-conditioned Volvo coaches that cost less than a tenner to visit three major cities in five days!

It took four hours to get from Sylhet to Dhaka. Known as the 'Rickshaw Capital of the World', half a million cycle rickshaws roam Dhaka's streets alongside its 15m residents, making it one of Asia's biggest cities.

We checked into Al Faruq Plaza in Station Road and our main mode of transport was the '4 Stroke' baby taxis – stupidly cheap in comparison to a local black cab. For retail therapy, Bashundhara Shopping Complex is the place to go; there really isn't much difference to Westfield or Bluewater!

And I was lucky enough to be in town to see the first Bangladesh Premier League Cricket match at Sher e-Bangla Stadium, Mirpur, where my hometown team Sylhet Royals got whipped by Chittagong Kings... my next destination.

The six-hour coach ride from Dhaka left me expecting something amazing to make up for the dreary journey and Chittagong did not disappoint. The commercial port city is without doubt the cosmopolitan melting pot of Bangladesh. I decided to spoil myself by checking in at the luxurious Agrabad Hotel with its own restaurants, shisha bar, a casino and a cinema. Chittagong Zoo was crazy and for 20 Taka we got to feed the monkeys and crocodiles!

The journey to the gold sand, blue water and tropical breeze of Cox's Bazaar was worth every mosquito bite.

We arrived at the Seagull Hotel and set up

FACT BOX

DILLY flew with Bangladesh Biman Airlines. He stayed at the Agrabad Hotel in Chittagong (executive single room from 4,500 Taka a night) and Cox's Bazaar (deluxe seaside single rooms for 3,500 Taka). £1 is about 130 Taka.

camp on the beach. There I kicked back, with a mango lychee fruit twist admiring the sun setting on the Indian Ocean pondering on how my perceptions of my motherland had changed.

Bangladesh is a beautiful country with a lot to offer regardless of location. Hot weather, grand mosques, zoos, scenery, shopping centres, beaches – you name it Bangladesh has it! It's silly how difficult it is to spend all your money because everything is so cheap. Travelling, eating and sightseeing can be done at jaw-dropping prices.

So next time you think of going on holiday to Asia, pencil Bangladesh into the equation.

ANTIQUES ROADSHOW

BBC1, 8pm

It can be difficult to distinguish between a repeat and a new episode of Antiques Roadshow as all the main attractions are always on the ancient side and the format of the show hasn't changed for decades. Some of the antique experts clearly spend their free time in suspended animation because they don't appear to have aged very much in the past 20 years. From the gorgeous locations to the jaunty theme music, there's nothing to dislike about this British institution which has become a hit all over the world. Tonight, Fiona Bruce heads to the Yorkshire Museum in York, where items of interest include a spy's camera, a quilt and a paperweight.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat: yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

LIVE TO LEARN & LEARN TO LIVE

'One thing only I know, and that is that I know nothing' said Socrates in around 400BC. If the most learned Greek philosopher of all time felt like that it makes you wonder what hope there is for the rest of us!
But take heart from Albert Einstein: "The important thing" he said, "is not to stop questioning."

Rumour has it that Albert Einstein's brain was remarkable for its unremarkable size and shape. It looked much like every other human brain. Of course, there must have been something going on in there that, generally speaking, doesn't tax the grey matter of other, less awesomely brilliant anthropoids. But from our very first moments on this earth to our very last breath we all have the capacity to learn. And in the same way that physical exercise keeps our body in shape so mental stimulation improves brain function and protects against cognitive decline.

So, even though we may not manage to unravel the mysteries of the universe or find a cure for cancer we can all explore our potential for success and satisfy our thirst for knowledge through making the most of the training and education opportunities around us.

Live to learn and you'll learn to live.

This week, the buzz for one of 2012's most eagerly-anticipated cars continues to grow as Renault announces the ten shortlisted entries from the student design competition to tie in with the launch of the 100% electric vehicle, the Twizy. The unique style of the two-seater run-around has captured creative imaginations across the country, but stakes are high for finalists as the designs are now open to the general public to cast their votes to find the lucky winners. The top prize will give one student £9,000, enough money to cover a years' worth of tuition fees, with runners up eligible for a weekend for two in Paris, and £250 in French Connection vouchers.

Since January, students throughout the UK have visited www.designatwizy.co.uk to download the Twizy template and let their creative juices flow in the hope of scooping one of the top prizes. Entries were collected until 20th February 2012, and have since been reviewed by a Renault-appointed judging panel of industry experts: Laurens Van Den Acker (Renault design chief), Thierry Sybord (Managing Director of Renault UK) and Quentin Willson (renowned motoring journalist and TV personality). As they reviewed the entries to curate their top ten designs, the panel were overwhelmed, not only by the response to the competition, but also by the diverse creativity demonstrated by the students

The shortlisted designs, ranging from neon digital-graffiti to monochromatic jungle-inspired prints, were chosen by the judges for their originality, marketability and of course, overall style. Public votes are now being cast until March 30th 2012 via www.designatwizy.co.uk, which showcases the innovative and quirky designs from each of the finalists. The winner and two runners up will be announced on 16th April 2012.

Brabin is left to pick players up for play-off push after late Trophy exit

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.com

HATTERS manager Gary Brabin said he will have to 'pick the players up' following the disappointment of missing out on a trip to Wembley in the FA Trophy final.

Luton had an uphill battle from the start trying to overturn the one goal advantage that York attained in the first leg last week, when the town were reduced to nine men.

Despite a first half goal from Robbie Willmott to level the tie, an 89th minute Matty Blair header sent City to the final.

Brabin said: "I thought we had a really positive first half performance, there was a good atmosphere, good tempo and we were going from strength-to-strength and had enough chances.

"It is really hard to take and my job at the moment is trying to lift the lads for Tuesday's game after being so close to Wembley.

"Despite a spirited performance last week, the deciding factor was going down to nine men and going a goal behind in the first leg – that was the killer blow."

Bursting out of the starting blocks, it was the Hatters who pressed forward against a stunned City side.

Despite holding the advantage, the Minstermen didn't seem to know how to cope with the pace of the game, and a battling Luton side that spent a long periods in their area.

The Hatters had a number of early chances as Stuart Fleetwood and Danny Crow went close with efforts that could have put the side back in the tie.

The breakthrough came in the 43rd minute as Willmott managed to find the back of the net. Following a defensive mistake, striker Crow found himself with plenty of time to make a surging goalwards run and pick out the winger, who tapped the ball passed the goalkeeper Michael Ingham and into the back of the net.

Before the game Brabin had called on the fans to be a 'weapon' in the tie, and that they were.

There has been a great deal of apathy shown to this competition, with regard to it taking attention away from the league campaign, but with a potential tie at Wembley at stake the fans found their voice and backed the side from start to finish.

Ex-Hatter Jason Walker was substituted off at half time after being subjected to a chorus of boos from the Luton faithful whenever he touched the ball following his inexplicable chipped penalty miss during the play-off final shoot-out last year.

But York seemed to find their feet in the second half and the match became a more even affair.

They had chances to take the advantage again as Jamie Reed and Ashley Chambers forced keeper Mark Tyler into making the saves.

The substitution of Fleetwood was greeted by surprise, but the addition of Adam Watkins gave the Hatters a different dimension.

The young midfielder had an instant impact on the game with a darting run setting up a shot for Howells, which sailed over the bar.

Complaints about referees have become a familiar feature after Town games and having seen four players sent off in the last four outings, including Howells and Keith Keane in the last week's first leg at York. Yesterday Brabin said there should have been more given for tugs on Janos Kovacs' shirt, which were apparent throughout the game.

He said: "I thought the only thing their players didn't do with Janos' shirt was ask him to sign it. Everyone in the crowd can see it, we can see it and it happened a number of times.

"These decisions just don't seem to be going our way at the moment."

Man-of-the-match, Keane agreed, saying: "We don't make excuses, but we made one tackle and they gave away five or six and got nothing.

"Pilks got kicked in the head today, I did that last week and I got sent off."

The fixture looked to be heading for extra time before Jamal Fyfield was allowed the time to cross the ball and Blair cruelly dumped Town out.

But the Hatters must recover and quickly as they turn their attention straight back to their do-or-die play-off push, with an away game against Forest Green on Tuesday evening.

Parkinson bags a brace as Barton brush off Burnham

EVO-STIK DIVISION ONE CENTRAL

BARTON ROVERS 4
BURNHAM 2

DAVE Parkinson scored a brace as Barton Rovers won comfortably at home to Burnham.

Russell Bull gave Rovers the lead on 17 minutes after reacting quickest to a loose ball. The visitors then levelled but Ricky Case scored before half time to restore the advantage.

Parkinson scored the first of his double on the hour mark as Barton began to show their dominance. However, Burnham pulled one back ten minutes later as they sought to start another revival.

But it wasn't to be and Parkinson netted late on to give the home side all three points.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

LONDON COLNEY 1
CRAWLEY GREEN 0

CRAWLEY Green were edged out in a hard-fought battle away to league leaders London Colney yesterday afternoon.

Robbie O'Dell and Vinny Shrieves both went close for the visitors in the first half, but the decisive blow came from the hosts on 74 minutes.

Shrieves almost equalised late on when hitting the post, however, he was then sent off for a second bookable offence.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION TWO

YESTERDAY'S derby between CADDINGTON and TOTTENHORE ended in a 2-2 draw. Strikes from Nathan Brinkley and Sam Osborne put Caddington ahead after 25 minutes but Tottenhore came back to equalise just before half-time. Elsewhere, THE 61FC lost 3-0 to Risborough Rangers.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION

DUNSTABLE TOWN 1
AFC DUNSTABLE 0

DUNSTABLE TOWN kept their title hopes alive after a passionate victory over neighbouring AFC in a match that saw hostilities spilling over, even after the final whistle.

Joseph Bruce, the Blues' central defender, netted a rare goal at an opportune time to earn the bragging rights and to put an enormous dent in the OD's own title ambitions.

As coaching staff and players argued well beyond the match had finished, Town sit level on points with top-of-the-table Royston Town but trail on goal difference.

The winning goal was scrappy but borne of determination – in keeping with the spirit of this derby. Arriving after 43 minutes, Bruce was quickest and strongest to react to a loose ball after team-mate Jack Nelly had rocked the crossbar from a corner kick.

AFC were second best throughout but having won the reverse fixture 1-0, they were not lacking in belief. Terry Billy and Tony Burnett squandered their best chances as the clock ticked down.

The final whistle brought an eruption from the bumper crowd rejoicing in local pride but it also acted as the catalyst for the tension to continue on a heated touchline.

BOXING

THE only carded female boxer in Luton has been hailed a role model for girls by coach Mark Hoffman after overcoming adversity to win her first amateur bout.

Tysie Gallagher from the Academy ABC beat Brentwood ABC's Chloe Haddon on countback in Hoddesdon last weekend where, despite suffering a bloody nose, drew a standing ovation from the crowd.

The 13-year-old, who suffers from Tourette's Syndrome – a neurological disorder characterised by involuntary and sudden movements known as tics – got into the sport because she was being bullied. But after attending the New Bedford Road club five nights a week for the last three years Hoffman agrees that boxing has helped her change for the better.

"I think she is a role model for girls," said the head coach, adding: "She has a disability but doesn't let it bother her.

"She's really tough and will spar with the boys, no problem. You see that when boxing she's so concentrated her tics completely disappear. She's really developed in the last six months. She's more controlled, boxed so well off the back foot last week and is just more confident as a person."

It has been quite a week for Gallagher as she followed up her first win by meeting hero Amir Khan at a press conference ahead of his world title re-match with Lamont Peterson.

The Academy have been celebrating a double success after Niall Duffy, 13, picked up a unanimous debut win, beating Hoddesdon fighter Chase Steadman.

The 41kg puncher only took up the sport seven months ago, so it was another point of pride for Hoffman, who said: "I had respected coaches come up to me afterwards to ask how many fights he'd had.

"When I told them it was Niall's first, one was so impressed told me he'd be a future ABA champion because he already looks like he's been in the ring ten times. He's got natural skills and a great style, so I'm delighted for him."

Duffy is straight back into action on Saturday in Peterborough along with Academy ABC captain Michael Hyde and Jake Bell.

■ The Academy are to host their first boxing dinner of the season on April 21 at Luton Rugby Club in aid of BreastCancer.org. For tickets ring: 01582 969 064

Edwards eases Luton into cup final

EAST MIDLANDS CUP SEMI-FINAL

WELLINGBOROUGH 17
LUTON 37

EAST Midlands Cup holders Luton staged a dramatic second half comeback to reach the final after overturning a 14-13 half-time deficit.

Teschan Edwards scored four tries, with Josh Button and Mike Weston also going over. Aidan Kenny added the extras.

Luton's cup run has been a welcome distraction from a poor league campaign that's seen them only win four times and they're currently one place off the foot of the table. The hosts raced to a 14-0 lead after a scrappy start but Weston and Edwards went over to reduce the arrears, with Kenny kicking a penalty goal.

After the interval, Edwards touched down for a converted try to give Luton the lead for the first time in the match.

Button then increased the advantage with his try.

Wellingborough kicked a penalty goal as they tried to stem the tide but two more scores from Edwards, one converted to secure a morale boosting victory.

Captain Hall hails Dees semi show

BEDFORDSHIRE CUP SEMI-FINAL

DUNSTABLIANS 37
BIGGLESWADE 13

DUNSTABLIANS reached the final of the Bedfordshire Cup after coming from behind to win.

Tries came from Reece Bowles, Sam Coogan, Scott Oliver, Scott Warren and Gavin Denning, with Joe Murphy kicking 12 points.

Bowles and Murphy got the Dees off to a flying start but Biggleswade came into their own and finished the half with a 13-8 lead.

However, a marked improvement by home side after mid-point interval led them to score 29 points without reply. Coogan went over and Murphy kicked to put the Dees ahead by three points.

Oliver, Warren and Denning then went over, with Murphy converting each time as Dunstablians stamped their authority on the match.

After the game, captain Stewart Hall said: "It took us a while to get in the game but we played well in the end. The scrums were good and the backs were strong."

Dunstablians will now play either holders Stockwood Park or Sharnbrook in the final.

Boss Brabin: I'm the right man to take Hatters up

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Town manager Gary Brabin still believes he is the man to guide the club to promotion, despite crashing out of the FA Trophy yesterday.

This time last season, Richard Money left the club by mutual consent following defeat in the FA Trophy semi-final against Mansfield.

However, Brabin (pictured) believes he can triumph where Money failed and hold on to the managerial position at least until the end of the season.

He said: "I do feel that I'm the right person. We are working hard, things haven't always gone our way but it is important that we stick together."

"I still believe we are good enough to get promoted."

"We need to get all of the bad luck out of the way now and get focused on the last 10 league games."

When asked if he is under extra pressure to now reach Wembley in the form of the play-off finals, he said: "I always put myself under pressure to do the right thing."

"The biggest factor for me is trying to guide that pressure away from the players. I want them to be focused, positive, and play in the right way."

"I think it is important that everyone keeps the faith."

Keith Keane said that although losing out on a FA Trophy final was disappointing, the focus can now be back on the promotion.

"The priority has always been the play-offs, that is what everyone wants."

"We have two games in hand, we just need to go and do the business and win the games."

"If we win the games, we'll stay in the play-offs."

Midfielder Alex Lawless agreed, saying: "We are more than realistic that we have a tough run-in, but there is enough ability in the squad and the season is far from over."

"We might have done it the wrong way, but if we go up through the play-offs it will be job done."

He added that he will use the pain of seeing the York fans cheering their victory to help focus him on the task in hand.

"It was hard to see them celebrating knowing it could have been us, but it will help the cause of getting to the play-off finals."

Murphy magic

RUGBY UNION

THERE was cup joy for Dunstabians and Luton Rugby Club yesterday as both reached finals.

Joe Murphy (pictured) kicked 12 points as Dees made it through to the final of the Bedfordshire Cup with a 37-13 semi-final win over Biggleswade.

Elsewhere, Teschan Edwards racked up four tries for Lutonians as they beat Wellingborough 37-17 to march on in their quest to retain the East Midlands Cup.
